Abbey on Monday 19 September

THE FIRST LESSON: 1 Corinthians 15: 20-26, 53-end

NOW is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Read by The Right Honourable the Baroness Scotland of Asthal KC, Secretary-General of the Commonwealth).

THE SECOND LESSON: John 14: 1-9a

Jesus Comforts His Disciples – (Jesus said) "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going."

Jesus the Way to the Father

Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?"

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me. If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him."

Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us."

Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you for such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.

Read by The Right Honourable Elizabeth Truss, Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Elsewhere in John's gospel we read of other claims by Jesus: "I am the bread of life" (6:35), "I am the light of the world" (8:12), "I am the good shepherd" (10:11) and the two-fold assertion "I am the resurrection and the life (11:25).

We notice that the claim, "I am the way and the truth and the life" is a statement which only the Son of God has the right to make. If it had come to us from any other historical or present-day character, whether famous or not, he would have been written off as an imposter. Only because Jesus Christ is more than an ordinary man and God in the flesh, is he able to make such an amazing claim. It should challenge those who question the divinity of Jesus to look again at the revelation of God in Christ – for those in the faith these words of Jesus confirm believe in him as the Son of God.

JESUS IS THE WAY: As the late Archbishop William Temple used to say: "Though the goal is unknown, the way is well-known for it is the Lord himself. We have to pass through him, as Jesus told the literal-minded Thomas if we are to come to the Father. We must be so united with Jesus that as he offers himself to the Father, he offers us also."

Jesus is the Way. There are two choices open to us in this life. We either accept Jesus as the Way or refuse him. Our end in this life is the same. We return to dust. And what matters at the end of life is not any private ambition we have achieved, or any power or material gained but whether or not we have followed Christ and have known him to be our Saviour.

Having said that we ought to be able to see the waste of time and purpose in following men. History is full of incidents where regret has been felt by those who have followed a king or a leader, or a man of any kind. Only the Lord is worth following. Isaiah, the Old Testament prophet found this to be true for he writes: "In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple." (Isaiah 6:1). He saw God at that time. He appears to have been following the king, but with the king out of the way, so to speak, he sees God the source of ultimate reality.

Christians have to be able to tell unbelievers what Jesus has to offer when he is recommended as being the Way. I will mention three things that Jesus offers. First of all, he offers us his divine resources of grace which equip us for the way or journey through life. We understand that God not only created us, but he also died to redeem us by coming into history and taking upon himself our sins and our sorrows. He also gives us real fellowship with himself as we travel through life which is the most wonderful privilege and joy we can know while living down here on earth. He also gives us help for the journey enabling us to face whatever life may throw at us. Yes, Jesus is the Way to the Father and seeing him we see the Father.

JESUS IS THE TRUTH: In the teaching of the Bible, truth is something of importance. But it refers to the ultimate truth about God and man. John, you remember, opens his gospel account by referring to Christ's relationship to God by saying that in the beginning "He was with God." Because Jesus is God and is therefore the truth, He stands apart from everyone else. He is the genuine, the authentic, having the same nature as God. He is the wonder-working God who stepped into history over 2000 years ago for the sole purpose of bringing many sons to glory as He laid down his life to obtain our redemption from sin. He is the Saviour of the world that we celebrate at this time of year, but on every other day of the year, because He loved us and continues to love us with an everlasting love. He conquered Satan and the kingdom of darkness for us and enables life to be lived in unbroken fellowship with him. He has the power to break every chain that binds us and bring into our lives the greatest and largest freedom through His unfailing love that we can know down here on earth.

It must be said that the truth mentioned here has little to do with telling the truth or speaking lies but rather truth as the ultimate thing which must be honoured. Yet there is a connection to which I will now refer. It is not uncommon to meet people who say that Christians are not telling the truth when they say: "Turn to Christ, He is all you need." They look at you with a queer expression as if to suggest that Christians are off-balance. But Christians are not!! They never have been and they never will be. We say turn to Christ because there is truth in Him and in no other. He is the One who is the express image of the Father.

If you know Jesus Christ as the Truth then you have a wonderful privilege and responsibility of being able to tell others of the great discovery you have made. There is every reason why you should be confident as you proclaim Christ to others. Knowing Christ as your Lord and Saviour, you possess the greatest secret of life that has been revealed personally to you.

I heard many years ago of a young Hindu who stayed at the International Methodist House in London. The room he was given, he was told, was his to use as he pleased. Some visitors to the home expressed their concern when they were shown his room and witnessed posters of Hindu gods on the walls. "Why is he allowed to put up such pictures in a Christian institution" the visitors asked their escort. Back came the reply: "The room is his home. He has permission to use it as he wishes." As a result of being prayed for and witnessing the warmth of Christian fellowship in the home, the young Hindu came in time to know Jesus as the Truth. There was no preaching, but God was at work mysteriously. First of all, the two side pictures were removed and finally the centre one was replaced by one of Jesus.

JESUS IS THE LIFE: In one of our favourite Christmas hymns, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" there is the verse:

*Mild He lays His glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the songs of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Risen with healing in His wings.*

Only King Jesus can bring light and life into our lives. Until He does just that, our lives are totally poverty-stricken. He only wants to do us good. Please don't think like the man who was asked if would like to become a Christian and replied: "I am sorry, I have enough problems already!!" He figured that to know Christ was to add to his burdens when in fact Jesus takes all of life's burdens and imparts a spiritual freedom and a deep lasting joy.

When we take hold of Jesus Christ by faith and He takes hold of us, then we are in a position to know His fullness of life flowing into our lives. Once we determine to "have" Jesus as Saviour and Lord of our lives and surrender everything that stands in the way from the kingdom of "self" within us, He will flow into our lives without any doubt whatsoever. Self has to be dethroned, allowing the Holy Spirit alone to abide on the citadel of our hearts.

The life of Jesus in a human being is the most attractive and fulfilling life of all! When you know that the Lord of heaven and earth lives in you, considers you very precious in His eyes, and loves you with an everlasting love, these are personal facts well able to totally change your life for each and every day. Someone said: "Be not satisfied until you can say that Jesus is an infinitely lovely being." If you can't say that it would normally suggest that you haven't fallen in love with Him to such a degree that He has captivated your life.

The fullest expression of the freedom of Jesus in our lives is realised when we become "captive" to the Lord Himself. "Make me a captive Lord and then I shall be free, Force me to render up my sword and I shall conqueror be. I sink in life's alarms when by myself I stand, Imprison me within thy arms and strong shall be my hand." George Matheson who wrote those lines realised that in order to achieve the best relationship with Jesus Christ he had to surrender life in totality to his Saviour. He had to die to self in order that the life of Christ could take over.

Psalm 115, verse 1

IF YOU HAVE NEVER INVITED JESUS CHRIST INTO YOUR LIFE, AND WISH TO, DO PRAY THE FOLLOWING PRAYER WITH ALL YOUR HEART: “Lord God Almighty, I approach you in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. I know I have sinned in my thoughts, words and actions. There are so many good things I have not done. There are so many sinful things I have done. I am truly sorry for the sinfulness in my life, but most of all I acknowledge the sin that separates me from you. I accept the death of Jesus on the Cross to redeem me and extend the gift of eternal life. Gratefully, I give my life back to you as I now ask you to come into my life. Come in as my Saviour and Lord and cleanse me. Come in as my Lord to control me. Come with the strength of your grace and the power of your Spirit to defeat the evil spirit of schizophrenia that troubles me. Now you have set my spirit free, pour your delivering and healing power into my life as I take authority in the name of Jesus through the power of his blood over the intruding force. I assert your ownership of my life and resist any legal right that the devil seeks to hold over my life and bind up and expel any evil presence. I believe that my mind can be completely set free and my whole life enjoy the total freedom of Jesus. Amen.

WEEKLY ENCOURAGER 9 OCTOBER 2022

BECOMING FREE ENDS ALL THE GRIEF YOU SUFFERED WITH SCHIZOPHRENIA

THIS WEEK'S SELECTED BIBLE READING IS JOHN'S GOSPEL CHAPTER 6: JESUS THE BREAD OF LIFE: Key Verses 32-58:

Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

"Sir," they said, "from now on give us this bread."

Then Jesus declared. "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all that he has given me, but raise them up at the last day. For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise up at the last day."

At this the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

"Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus answered. "No-one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. No-one has seen the Father except the one who is from God: only he has seen the Father. I tell you the truth, he who believes has everlasting life. I am the bread of life. Your forefathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died. But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which a man may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you can eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Your forefathers ate manna and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live forever." He said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

The dawning of schizophrenia is a major onslaught with devastating results. Not only is the quality of life drastically affected but a person's freedom is severely assaulted.

While the psychiatric world are content to describe schizophrenia merely as "a mental disorder" and leave it there, Christians with spiritual insight know there is a dark, evil presence behind such a real bondage.

You are aware of these facts when facing life's unpredictable upheaval every day - but as a Christian believing in the power of the risen Lord Jesus Christ you now possess real HOPE of becoming permanently set free.

It is always a significant step to freedom when you possess the good news of the HOPE found in Jesus. Encouragement is being sent to you today to go on grasping in faith the lifeline held in the hands of the world's Mighty Saviour, Deliverer and Healer who sets the captives free.

Without the knowledge of Christ's life-giving and healing Spirit inside you, it would be hard to impact the hopelessness of defeating schizophrenia. But with Jesus, all things are possible.

Even though you are on medication and struggling with confused thinking, the presence of hope must reside every day in your life. Hope is anchored in faith in Jesus. Believing faith feeds on Jesus in the heart and on His Word – sufficient to keep hope alive (see Hebrews 11:1).

Here's a verse of Scripture to memorise and allow God to write on your heart: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13). Such hope will provide the endurance and encouragement to press ahead to defeat schizophrenia.

Having been born-again by the Spirit of God and knowing Christ has forgiven your sin, you have a new Helper, Counsellor and Intercessor as your personal Friend. Jesus puts such a value on your life that He is ready to pour into your life His healing power enabling you to secure deliverance.

A PRAYER OF HOPE FOR THOSE SUFFERING WITH SCHIZOPHRENIA: "Lord God Almighty, will you hear my prayer and make the sacrifice of your Son, Jesus Christ real to me. Wipe away my sins that were atoned for on the Cross of Calvary by Jesus in order that I might not have to die eternally. I believe that Jesus took all my sins and my sorrows and made them His very own and after three days He rose again from the dead and now makes intercession for me. By the power of His shed blood, I believe I am now set free and opened up to all the resources of His grace and power. I am looking forward to the day – why not today – when the evil bondage of schizophrenia surrounding my mind is totally defeated. I ask You, Heavenly Father, to help me drive out the dark, spiritual presence by the light and power of your conquering Holy Spirit's presence. I want to know the reality of the promise Jesus made that whoever follows him will not walk in darkness but will have the Light of Life. Make it happen for me, as I pray in the Mighty Name of Jesus, Amen.

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD AT PRESENT?

1. Violence and knife crime is on the increase, particularly in the west.
2. Family breakdown. Civil, ethnic and political unrest.
3. Deception - growing confusion, regarding beliefs and gender identity.
4. Growing belief in Universalism - all religions lead to God and no-one has the monopoly of TRUTH. A move to a one world religion.
5. People are sold into the lie of not giving offence to others, rather than upholding what they believe as truth, hence the rise of Political Correctness.
6. A move towards a One World government. The emergence of 'Deep State' with powerful secret societies, such as 'The Illuminati', manoeuvring across the world stage. Leaders in some secret societies dictate to country leaders who to put in power. Globalism is being promoted - through the irradiation of country borders and nationhood.

7. Federal Reserve. This is a private bank and is not monitored. These bankers want to help control the world and the finance system. They originally took gold from the Americas into the Federal Reserve for safe keeping but never returned it.
8. Famines and unprecedented migration. Earthquakes - more in the 20th century than in the previous 19 centuries. Many wars across every continent with thousands of innocent people and children killed.
9. Climate change involvement is becoming completely dominant in people's hearts and minds. Some theological students in New York are confessing their sins to plants! A generation is emerging that is worshipping creation rather than God the creator!

WHAT DOES JESUS CHRIST, GOD'S SON, HAVE TO SAY ABOUT ALL THIS? QUITE A LOT!

Jesus Christ's first coming was prophesied around 137 times in the Old Testament of the Bible hundreds of years before He was born in Bethlehem. There are over 200 prophecies regarding His Second Coming in both the Old and New Testaments.

Jesus lived for around 33 years, was then falsely accused and suffered by dying on the Cross outside Jerusalem around 2,000 years ago. There He died for you and me and God's anger for our sin was placed on Him. After Jesus died, He was placed in a tomb and three days later came back to life. He went back to heaven but promised to return to earth to take those who love Him to be with Him forever.

Jesus said in Matthew's gospel, Chapter 24, that the following would take place before He returns to the earth:-

1. False Christs and false prophets will appear.
2. Wars and rumours of wars.
3. Famines and earthquakes which will be like the beginning of labour pains.
4. Those who are followers of Jesus Christ will be hated and even put to death.

5. An increase in wickedness across the earth.
6. Many will turn away from the truth and betray each other.
7. Great distress - unequalled from the beginning of the world until now - will occur. Jesus, speaking of Himself, said, "the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken." At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn because of Him. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other." (Matthew's gospel, Chapter 24:29-30). Why did they mourn? Because they were not prepared for His Coming!
8. Jesus warned His disciples to "keep watch" and to be aware of the times in which we live. He said: "No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son but only the Father. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." What was characteristic of those days? Violence and wickedness was rife and present in everyone's mind was only evil all the time.

PROCLAMATION FOR GOD'S PROTECTION by Derek Prince

NO WEAPON that is formed against me shall prosper and every tongue which rises against me in judgement I do condemn. This is my heritage as a servant of the Lord and my righteousness is from You, O Lord of Hosts. If there are those who have been speaking or praying against me, or seeking harm or evil to me, or who have rejected me, I forgive them. Having forgiven them, I bless them in the name of the Lord." *

NOW I DECLARE, O Lord, that You and You alone are my God, and besides You there is no other – a just God and a Saviour, the Father, the Son and the Spirit – and I worship You!

I SUBMIT myself afresh to You in unreserved obedience. Having submitted to You, Lord, I do as Your Word directs. I resist the devil: all his pressures, his attacks, his deceptions, every instrument or agent he would seek to use against me. I do not submit! I resist him, drive him from me and exclude him from me in the Name of Jesus. Specifically I reject and repel: infirmity, pain, infection, inflammation, malignancies, allergies, viruses, and every form of witchcraft.

FINALLY, LORD, I thank You that through the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, I have passed out from under the curse and entered into the blessing of Abraham whom You blessed in all things: exaltation, health, reproductiveness, prosperity, victory and God's favour. AMEN

We are continuing to insert in the Weekly Encourager some powerful Scriptures to read, memorise and meditate on for USE in your prayer battle to drive out the demon of schizophrenia. By so doing your confidence in the LORD JESUS CHRIST will grow because the words will impart "spirit and life" into your spirit, and so equip you in your fight for freedom to know the deliverance and healing of JESUS CHRIST.

(Jesus said): "So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no-one will take away your joy. In that day you will no longer ask me anything. I tell you the truth, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete." John 16:22-24

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armour God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Ephesians 6:10-12

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time and for ever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this. Isaiah 9:6-7

You may be reading the Weekly Encourager for the first time and have stumbled across our website in a desperate search to break free of schizophrenia. Or every week you visit W.E. for encouragement and help to overcome this "monster" of mental illnesses and have been given REAL HOPE that the Lord Jesus is the only One to open the prison door to freedom in your life once and for all time. We encourage you to keep logging into the site as often as you can for scriptural advice as we continue to point to Jesus who is well-trying and tested in the area of setting captives free from a bondage that no-one else can conquer. Our website www.schizophreniadefeated.com seeks to magnify the dear Son of God who left the courts of heaven to come to our world and die for you and me on the Cross at a place called Calvary just outside Jerusalem over 2,000 years ago. In that sacrifice, he paid the punishment and penalty of your sin and mine and on the third day rose again as "The Resurrection and the Life". He releases TODAY into your life and to anyone accepting his sacrifice, the same victorious life that brought him back from the dead, in the person of the Holy Spirit. Why not invite him into your life right now? It's a life-transforming experience that you CAN REALLY KNOW – which is well able to defeat and conquer the hell of schizophrenia you struggle with, for good!
